

Fertility and Cancer:

What you should know

Cancer treatment can cause infertility in men and women. There has been an increase in early-onset cancers, such as early-onset breast and colorectal cancers. All reproductive age cancer patients are entitled to information on preserving fertility.

Learn more here

